

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
Temple Israel of Hollywood
Los Angeles, CA

Temple Israel of Hollywood, a Reform congregation in the heart of Los Angeles, is seeking an Executive Director. Founded in 1926, TIOH has long been defined by its dedication to social justice, its commitment to lifelong learning, and its deep sense of community. Diverse and dynamic, the congregation is made up of more than 900 households.

As TIOH's chief operating officer, the Executive Director works to develop, implement, and manage the policies and programs that will build and sustain the human, financial, and physical resources of the Temple as a strong Jewish home and communal institution.

The Executive Director works most closely with the Board and Senior Rabbi, and currently supervises a staff of about 20, including four direct reports. He or she is also responsible, along with the Director of Finance and Temple treasurer, for managing TIOH's multimillion-dollar budget, working collaboratively across a wide range of constituencies including the Temple's three excellent schools.

To fill this post, TIOH is looking for a seasoned manager with an outstanding blend of interpersonal skills, leadership ability, and financial acumen. The ideal candidate will see this position as a calling and will be prepared to lead by example as a Jewish role model in all phases of the work.

Prospective applicants should send a letter of interest and resume to the Search Committee via email at EDSearch@tiah.org or mail it to 137 North Larchmont Blvd. #519 Los Angeles, CA 90004 by March 1, 2010. For further information on the scope of this position and the Temple, please visit www.TIOH.org