Waldsee 1944

July 19 - August 20, 2005

An exhibition in memory of the annihilation of Hungarian Jewry during the summer of 1944, when Jews deported to their deaths at Auschwitz were required to write deceptive postcards from "Waldsee" to their families, reassuring them that all was well. International artists have created their own visual symbolism, in the form of the postcard, to commemorate the Hungarian Holocaust.
