

Resolution of the National Federation of Temple Youth 1983

Homosexuality

RESOLVED

That homosexuals are entitled to equal protection under the law, and NFTY, in accordance, opposes discrimination against homosexuals and urges the public to affirm this opposition by providing protection from such discrimination, and

That NFTY urge its member youth groups to study the issue of homosexuality, the Jewish view of homosexuality and to educate the community by designing programming for adults and youth on the topic of homosexuality.