

The Foundation for Jewish Studies

Biomedical Ethics: Traditional Jewish Values Across the Continuum of Life

Date: Sunday, January 08, 2012

Time: 12:00 pm - 5:15 pm

Location: Temple Shalom; 8401 Grubb Road; Chevy Chase, MD 20815

Registration Fee: $35 per person (includes lunch), please register in advance. CEUS from the Kalsman Institute for MFTs/RNs/LCSWs - $25

A Symposium for Physicians, Nurses, Social Workers, Allied Healthcare Providers, Rabbis, Chaplains, & the General Public

Sponsored by the Bioethics Group of the Society of Jewish Ethics & the Foundation for Jewish Studies

Organized and convened by Dr. Sander H. Mendelson

- |          |  |
|----------|--|
| 12:00 pm | Registration & Light Lunch   |
| 1:00 pm  | End of Life IssuesClinical CasePresentation by Rabbi Elliott DorffComments by Rabbi William Cutter (on narratives) & Evan DeRenzo, PhD (a secular bioethics view)Discussion         |
| 3:00 pm  | Break  |
| 3:15 pm  | Bioethics at the Bedside: Why and how should we include Jewish values in patient care?Rabbi Sandy Rubenstein, MSWComments by Rabbi James Michaels (experiences in chaplaincy)Discussion |
| 4:15 pm  | Synthetic Life: What is it? And why should we be concerned about it?Paul Root Wolpe, PhDDiscussion  |

With the collaboration of the Kalsman Institute, Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion, Los Angeles, CA; Temple Shalom, Chevy Chase, MD; and Center for Ethics, Washington Hospital Center, Washington, DC.

For more details, including CEU information and speaker biographies, please visit our website at www.foundjs.org, call us at 301-770-4787, or send us an email at info@foundjs.org.