

Fall Holiday Online Resources 2007

1. MyJewishLearning.com Holidays

<http://www.myjewishlearning.com/holidays/AboutJewishHolidays.htm>

MyJewishLearning.com is a trans-denominational website of Jewish information and education geared toward learners of all ages and educational backgrounds. This link leads to materials on all of the Jewish Holidays.

2. URJ.org: Jewish Parent Page

http://urj.org/_kd/Items/actions.cfm?action=Show&item_id=15528&destination=ShowItem

The Jewish Parent Page informs and educates about the Jewish holidays and their customs. It includes blessings, historical background, recipes, family activities and other creative ways to celebrate the Jewish festivals.

3. Babaganewz.com

http://www.babaganewz.com/teachers/index_main.cfm?cat=10&sub=holidayresources

Part of the teacher resources available through Babaganewz.com. BabagaNewz is a full-color monthly classroom magazine for grades 4-7.

4. Keshernet.com

<http://keshernet.com/resources/>

Resources are available for those not yet in college, current college students, campus professionals, and congregational leaders, and range from printed publications to web links to materials that can be downloaded.

5. Morim.org

<http://www.morim.org/Home.aspx>

This resource includes a wealth of programs, lesson plans, and ideas for a variety of Jewish content areas. Free registration is required to access details of listed programs.

6. BJENY.org - Educational Resource Center - Holidays

http://www.bjeny.org/erc_Holidays.asp

The Educational Resource Center of the Bureau of Jewish Education in NY has a large collection of holiday resources online.

7. Rac.Org - Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism

<http://rac.org/pubs/holidayguides/highholidays/>

Three social justice themes are highlighted: Hunger, Environment and the Judicial System. Activities around these themes for individuals and families as well as program ideas for congregations, youth groups and religious schools are featured.